

The Friends of Walpole Old Chapel (charity number: 1198030)

Data Protection Policy/Notice [V1]

Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into their possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation, 2018 (the "GDPR").

Who are we?

The board of trustees of The Friends of Walpole Old Chapel (The Board) is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

How do we process and use your personal data?

The Board complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by:

- keeping personal data up to date.
- storing and destroying it securely.
- not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data.
- protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure.
- ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes:

- to enable us to provide a charitable service for the benefit of the public as specified in our constitution.
- to administer membership records.
- to fundraise and promote the interests of the charity.
- to manage our employees and volunteers.
- to maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications).
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at Walpole Old Chapel

What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about the Chapel's news, events, activities and services.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out legal obligations in relation to Gift Aid or under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement.
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided:
  - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes).
  - there is no disclosure to a third party without your consent.

Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as confidential and will only be shared with other members of the charity in order to carry out a service to other charity members or for purposes connected with the charity. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the parish with your consent.

How long do we keep your personal data?

We retain electoral roll data while it is still current. Gift aid declarations and associated paperwork are kept for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate. The chapel no longer keeps the legal register for marriages. However, we continue to keep a register for the charity's purposes. This is a permanent record.

Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the board holds about you.
- The right to request that the board corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date.
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the board to retain such data.
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal data at any time.
- The right to request that the board provides and transmits your personal data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), where applicable. [Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means].

- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing.
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, where applicable. [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics].
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
